

PRESS RELEASE

CAHN Launches its flagship Black History Month 2022 with a Civic Event at Manchester Cathedral

To mark this year's Black History Month, the Caribbean & African Health Network (CAHN) will be hosting a Civic event in Manchester.

The event will be taking place on Wednesday, 28th September 2022 from 6:30pm to 9pm at, Manchester Cathedral, Victoria Street, Manchester, M3 1SX.

This year's celebration will honour the culture and heritage of African and Caribbean people while celebrating our rich history, highlighting our diversity and looking ahead to our collective future.

This highly anticipated event will include live cultural performances, glorious choir singing, stalls, presentation and a keynote speech by Martin Forde, QC.

Charles Kwaku-Odoi, Chief Officer of CAHN said: "While we celebrate the incredible contributions of black people across the globe, we also remember the sacrifices made and look forward to greater strides forward in the future."

"For our civic event on Wednesday 28th September, we look forward to a fantastic event that revives community spirit. Attendees are in for a spectacular experience at the event or online as we celebrate Black culture and diversity. About CAHN

CAHN is a Black-led organisation set up to address the wider social determinants to reduce health inequalities for people of Caribbean & African descent in UK. We work with the Black community and cross-sector organisations to build community resilience, relationships, and a social movement to reduce health inequalities.

CAHN's vision is to eradicate health inequalities and disparities within a generation by building community resilience and a social movement.

Our mission is to ensure that strategic and operational actions of service providers across health and cross sector agencies and commissioners, lead to racial and social justice for Black people.
